The favorite bark A. A. Eldridge, Capt. Bennett, arrived at noon on the 8th, 16 days passage, with

On the 10th the ship Oracle, en route for Hongkong, arrived, 12 days passage, with mails. Our dates from San Francisco are to the 20th, and from New York to the 25th October. The war news is very meager, the public attention being centered on the election which took place Nov. 8. We glean the following from the various quarters in which the armies are fighting.

From Grant.

There appears to have been no fighting around Richmond, more than picket skirmishing, and Gen. Grant appears to be waiting for some special object. New York, Oct. 24 .- The Herald's Washington special says the opinion is openly avowed by the highest military authorities here, that Grant can, at any time he pleases, with a few hours' fighting, occupy Richmond, and force Lee either to capitulate or hastily evacuate the rebel capital. The only reason assigned for the delay is the desire of the Lieutenant-General to obtain the same result without the serious sacrifice of life that would attend the capture of this stronghold by direct assault at this time.

Sherman had had a battle with Hood near Allatoons, in which the latter found it convenient to re-

New York, Oct. 19 -- The importance of our victory over Hood at Allatoona was not made apparent by our first report. It appears that there were 1,500 .-000 rations there, of which Hood was informed by female spies who had ascertained the fact. Besides, Aliatoona is so situated that with 10,000 men Hood could hold the place against ten times his number. New York, Oct. 25-The Herald's Chattanooga correspondent, writing on the 18th, says : " Sherman is not pushing lood, but rather managing, if possible, to coop him up in the Valley, and starve him to death. Hood has woefully failed in finding or capturing supplies. He is trying his best to avoid a fight. He attempted to sneak back through Snake Creek Gap, but finding that outlet blocked up he ing, a mile and a half below Fayette. Sherman is perhaps six miles from him."

Shenandoah Valley. On the 19th Oct., Ewell attacked Sheridan, and was defeated with great loss. New York, Oct. 25 .- The Commercial's special says the details of Sheridan's brilliant victory on the 19th, are now coming in. The pursuit has ended for the present. The prisoners are being sent to a place of safe custody in the rear. The trophies of war adorn the camps of the gallant victors. General Custer has already brought to Washington the flags taken from the enemy.

A Harper's Ferry letter of October 24th contains information from several sources that 3,600 prisoners have already been captured. 1,500 arrived at Harper's Ferry on Monday, 1,000 more were left at Winchester. Our cavalry are still engaged picking up rebel stragglers and deserters, who are glad to escape from the rebel army. These prisoners candidly admit that Sheridan is the best general against whom they have fought; that his dashing tactics are more than a match for even Jubal Early.

It is ascertained from rebel deserters, prisoners and other indisputable sources, that the loss of the enemy will reach ten thousand in killed, wounded and prisoners. Among the guns taken were twenty new brass pieces, which were recently turned out from Richmond, and with which Early had been supplied only a few days before the battle. Twelve thousand small arms have been picked up on the field and along the track of the flying enemy, exhibiting a state of demoralization not often witnessed among veterans such as those with whom Early was provided.

News from Rebeldom.

New York, Oct. 25 .- Richmond papers of the 22d are received. Early's defeat by Sheriuan is acknowledged by the rebel press, as well as by Early, who admits that he lost thirty pieces of artillery, but claims that the Union pursuit of him did not amount to much, as only cavalry were engaged in it. Our infantry, whom, he says, "suffered more severely, being too badly demoralized to follow."

The Richmond Enquirer says that all the camp equipage captured in the morning was retaken by the enemy, and that Strasburg was captured. The artillery becoming mixed up in the street with some of their own, through the demoralization of the drivers, was abandoned by night.

The same paper says: "Our army was in Newmarket, worn out with fatigue, perplexed and mortitied with the results of the day's operations." Only 1,000 in killed and wounded, and a small number captured, is the estimate of rebel casualties by this

An order has been issued by the Richmond War Office to conscript one-fifth the employees in the Ordnance and Nitre Bureaus, which would secure 4,000 to the military force. This order is considered a breach of faith, and gives great dissatisfaction, but shows the serious condition to which the rebels are

From Mexico.

New OBLEANS, Oct. 16 .- The Alliance from Vera Cruz, brings intelligence that Cortinas has submitted to the Emperor Maximilian and surrendered all his forces, his cannon, arms and ammunition to Gen. Mejia, who holds command under Maximilian. Cortimas has accepted a commission in the army of the Emperor as Brigadier General. The rebels for some time had agents at Matamoras offering large sums of money to Cortinus for his rifled cannon. He refused to sell to them, as they were not only enemies to the United States, but to a republican form of government on this continent, and if it had not been for the rebels. Mexico would not have been invaded by the French. A large number of Mexican officers had arrived, to seek an asylum in the United States.

The Pennsylvania Election-Latest. A despatch received by Mr. A. J. Bryant, Chairman of the Union State Central Committee, from ex-Governor E. D. Morgan, of New York, Chairman of the National Committee, dated the 26th, says that the vote of the Pennsylvania soldiers is not yet in, and that there is little doubt of the fact that the State has gone for the Unionists by a small majority on the home vote .- Alta, Oct. 25.

Miscellaneous.

New York, Oct. 25 .- A large number of French officers are stopping in this city, on their way home from Mexico Ten thousand troops have been withdrawn from Mexico.

New York, Oct. 25 .- The Herald's Hilton Head special dispatch says the yellow fever still prevails at Charleston, Wilmington, and other rebel cities-from twenty to thirty dying daily. Gen. Foster having been officially notified that the Union prisoners in Charleston have been relieved from duress under fire, has ordered the removal of the rebel priseners on Morris Island to Fort Pulaski.

The Capture of the Roanoke. Halifax, October 19-The Havana Steamer Roanhe was especied by the rebel Lieut. Braine, who took her to Bermuda and landed the passengers. She was not allowed to coal or provision. He proceeded to sea and burned the Roanoke. On returning with the crew he was at once arrested by the British au-

Halifax, October 25 -The steamer from Bermuda arrived to-night with the passengers of the steamer Roanoke. It appears that after the Roanoke left Havana, her engines were stopped to receive passengers approaching in boats, who afterwards proved to be Confederates under Capt. Braine and Lieut. Parr, at the Peace Conference a compromise is said to have of Chesapeake notoriety. After the capture, Braine been effected on the financial question, and the minor proposed to Cipt. Drew to bond the steamer for $50,-000 in gold, payable at Bermuda, Braine to keep charge. This was of course refused. The Roanoke arrived at Bermuda quite out of coal. She had a valuable cargo of bale tocacco, cigars, and sugar. Braine and associates were all liberated. Capt. Drew and the crew left for New York on the 15th.

DEATH OF CAPTAIN SPEKE THE AFRICAN EXPLORE ER .- The North British Mail, of September 17th, has

Through a woeful fatality, Captain Speke, the African explorer, has lost his life. He has accidently shot himself. He had gone down to Bath to attend the meeting of the British Association, where his presence was expected with cager interest. On Thursday morning he went out to shoot. In forcing a way through a hedge with his gun upon his arm, the piece was touched by the twigs. It exploded, and the charge went through his heart, causing instantaneous death. How strangely sad that a man who had seen and done so much, who had undergone and overcome so many perils of journeyings, of waters, of robbers, should come home to end his career thus

THE NEW YORK HERALD'S OPINION ON THE SIT-UATION-The Herald of the 2d instant thus winds up an article on the speedy close of the war by the Union troops now in the field:

On the other hand, we dare say that General Grant as thoroughly comprehends these Western Rebei diversions as he did the late boisterous and terrible irruption of Early into Maryland and to the suburbs of Washington. Sherman will take care of Forrest, and Rosecrans will satisfactorily dispose of Price, [he has disposed of him,] without any interruption to the main work in hand under the immediate direction of General Grant. To this work-the possession of Richmond-all the other active operations of the war on both sides are now subordinated; for with the fall of Richmond the Rebellion is at an end. The game is fairly within the grasp of Grant, and the end ap-

KANSAS CITY, October 23 -A general battle has been fought and a great victory won. Price's army has been routed, and is retreating rapidly south. Our cavalry are in bot pursuit, together with Pleasanton's force, numbering 15,000 mounted men. The enemy may strike Fort Scott, but they will be too closely followed to do much damage. The battle began early this morning. The volunteers were hotly engaged yesterday, and Cols. Jennison and Moon-light (?) did some splendid fighting. The situation last night looked precarious. Price having occupied the line of the Big Blue.

QUEBEC, Oct. 22-The outline of the new Federal Constitution will probably be as follows: The Go-vornor General of the Confederation to be appointed by the Crown, and to be advised by the Cabinet, under the British Parliamentary form. The Government members of the Upper Chamber to be appointed by the Crown for life. The members of the Lower House to be elected for five years ; the representation to be adjusted every ten years. A Lieutenant Governor to each Province, to be appointed by the Governor General of the Confederation, under the advice of the Federal Cabinet. The Constitution and local Legislatures to be determined by the existing Parliament. With regard to uniformity in finance, the Ministers of the different Provinces are engaged in preparing financial statements for each Province. CINCINNATI, October 19 .- The National Peace Convention met here yesterday with closed doors Fifty delegates were present .A Committee on Resolutions was appointed and the Convention adjourned to meet to day. It is understood that Independent Presidential nominations will be made.

The Peace Convention discussed the report of the Committee on Resolutions, which was adopted. The platform declares for peace on the basis of the Sovereignty of the States, condemns the action of the Chicago Convention, repudiates McClellan, and calls for a Convention of States to settle our difficulties. Long of Ohio, and Singleton of Illinois, are spoken of as candidates for the Presidency and Vice-Presi-

Philadelphia, October 19 .- A dispatch from Harrisburg says: " Official returns from fifty-nine counties show a Democratic gain of 16,300, and a Union gain of 2,900 over the Gubernatorial vote of 1863. This excess deducted from the Union majority of that year leaves a Union majority of 1,950, with the counties of Clarion, Forrest, Jetterson, Mercer, Venango, Wyoming and York to hear from."

New York, October 19 .- The news of Early's defeat, received in England, caused a three per cent. fall in the Confederate loan. The loan had fallen twenty-eight per cent. in three weeks.

WAR DEPARTMENT, Washington, October, 19-The President was serenaded to-night and made a speech, congratulating the audience, Maryland, the nation and the world on the new Constitution of Maryland.

European Intelligence.

Dates to October 13th. FARTHER POINT, Oct. 24 .- The stenmer Belgian, from Liverpool the 18th, has arrived. Commercial affairs continue to be the principal topic of discussion-the depression in commercial circles showing no diminution. Business was dull, and prices continue to fail. Additional failures have The London Times has an editorial on the address of three hundred thousand signatures, recently sent to Gov. Seymour from England, entreating the North to make peace with the South. It says the address can effect nothing, and thinks the only possible solution of the question is continued war-that America has commenced the same fiery ordeal of war which settled Europe on its present basis. Terrible as is the process, the Times cannot doubt that America will be better for it in the end.

La Patrie says Russia has given its adhesion to the French policy on the Roman question. La France says the insurrection in Algeria is spreading, the natives appearing to be obeying a summons to a holy war. In relation to the Danish question, it is said that questions have all been arranged. There only remains now the drawing up of the treaty of peace. Semmes, accompanied by eight officers of the Alaferred, with guns, to the steamer Ranger, recently Paris papers mention a rumor of differences in the British Cabinet which might bring about a change bama, and one hundred men, have left to be trans-in the Ministry. The English papers are silent on Many Poles in England from the late revolution intend to take service under the new Emperor of Mexico. The Austrian authorities give every encouragement to the scheme. The Commercial Advertiser's Paris correspondent says the press and public continue to discuss the late treaty in regard to Rome. The Catholic papers proclaim the treaty revolutionary, and charge upon the Emperor the extinction of Papacy. The liberal papers regard the act as destructive to the temporal power, and applaud the Imperial Government, and insist that the Pope must adopt the idea and roomcile himself with Victor Emanuel.

JUNIUS DISCOVERED .- For many years it has been a mooted question as to who was the author of the famous "Junius" letters. At one time it appeared to be generally conceded that Sir Philip Francis was the author. It is now said that incontrovertible proofs exist that the author was Rev. Dr. James Wilmot, who is said to have been a convivial divine, but a ripe scholar and an able man. His niece, the celebrated Olivia Wilmot Serres, many years ago published a volume in which she contended that the Doctor's claim to the authorship was established; and the late Mr. Beckford, of Fonthill, is said to have given his opinion that Wilmot was Junius. Among the later proofs of his identity with Junius are said to be some letters of Lord Chatham.
